What Hands Are These?

They are the hands of leprosy, dread and loathsome disease, the mere mention of which excites fear and revulsion, and that condemns its pitiful victims to lifelong social ostracism. Throughout Africa and Asia, in primitive leproseries and in fetid bush and jungle villages, there are uncounted thousands of lepers. You can help put medicine in their hands and hope in their hearts by donating to the Catholic Bishops' Relief Fund which maintains aid programs for the sick and destitute in 70 countries, without regard to race, religion or color. COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

O. O. SWORDS
County Agent

DAIRY NOTES

The outlook for profitable dairying is good for the farmer who will carry out the basic fundamentals of successful dairy farming. These fundamentals are: good breeding - meaning the use of the best sires available. Usually this calls for artificial breeding; adequate feeding, based on high quality home-grown roughage. Production testing or record keeping and good management.

For good feeding, balance your number of cows with the available feed supplies. Remember, you cannot long starve a profit out of dairy cows.

Several systems of production testing or record keeping are available to Mississippi Farmers. Check with your local County Agent for the one best suited to your particular operation.

FERTILIZER PLACEMENT

Unless your soil already has a good supply of potash and phosphate, or you are willing to increase the rate of phosphate use by at least 50 percent, broadcast application of mixed fertilizer for row crops is not recommended.

Band application is most generally recommended for row crops. In this way the fertilizer is concentrated where it will do the most good and less comes in contact with the soil, so less is fixed in an unavailable form.

With the use of high analysis fertilizers, it is even more important that the fertilizer be placed properly. Recommendations call for banking the fertilizer 3 to 4 inches below the seed and 3 to 4 inches to the side of the drill. This helps prevent seedling damage from contact with fertilizer.

FISH POND FERTILIZATION

Fertilizing your farm pond will pay off in more pounds of fish. Begin fertilizing in late February and continue through mid-March with three applications of fertilizer two weeks apart.

For each acre of pond water, use 50 pounds of 16-16-4 or 100 pounds of 8-8-2. You can fertilize small ponds by throwing fertilizer from the bank. For larger ponds, use a boat. When using a boat, apply the fertilizer in water six feet deep or less.

Do not fertilize a pond that stays muddy all the time; one that is infested with undesirable fish; one that is infested with weeds; one that you do not plan to fish heavily; or when most of the bargain caught are small. This is a sign that the fish population is out of balance and fertilizing will do no good. In this case, the pond should be poisoned and restocked.

SELECTIVE SERVICE, EMPLOYMENT SERVICE JOIN IN PROJECT

JACKSON, (Special) - As a result of a nationwide pilot project by the president's Task Force on Manpower Conservation, the Mississippi Employment Service has embarked on a long-range program to aid Selective Service draftees who fail to meet military requirements.

The program is operative in all fifty states, is a cooperative effort between Selective Service and the Employment Service in each state and is aimed at giving maximum assistance for development, and eventual employment, of young men who are rejected by the Armed Forces.

The plan is designed to uncover physical and mental deficiencies early in the lives of the draftees, so that something constructive can be done about them.

As part of the emphasis of President Johnson towards fuller manpower utilization the program will be a cooperative effort with Selective Service to provide intensive service by the Mississippi State Employment Service for unemployed and under-employed young men who currently fail to meet the education or intelligence standards of the Armed Forces.

Letters are now being sent by Local Selective Service Boards to those young men rejected during February if they are not already employed, encouraging them to contact the appropriate local Mississippi State Employment Service office for assistance. At the State Employment Service office they will be offered all appropriate services, such as testing, counseling, job development, and referral.

Local offices will also determine need for and ability to accomplish training or other services available under current manpower assistance through other community resources.

After July 1, Selective Service will begin ordering 18-year olds for Armed Forces examination, which will be a new approach. Those found not qualified for acceptance at that time will be advised to report to the nearest local office of the Mississippi State Employment Service, if they are not already employed.

There will be no change in induction for service in the Armed Forces for those who, as 18-year olds, are found acceptable. Under the new procedure they will be classified at an earlier age only and induction will continue from among the group which is older, as is the case under present circumstances.

Mason Rudolph hung on to capture the Greater New Orleans Open Monday by one stroke. Numerous fans followed the players each day of the tournament.

With such horses as Tollway, Bold Command, Green Hornet and Piper's Son, the New Orleans Handicap scheduled for Saturday, should be something to watch. Local fans will probably be on hand to witness this racing classic at the Fairgrounds. There are only 2 more weeks left for this year's racing season.

A number of local golfers toured the course at Pass Christian Isles Golf Course Sunday taking advantage of one of the good days we've had recently. The course is still in good condition.

IMPORTANT TO KEEP COPIES OF TAX RETURNS

"It is good business practice to prepare and keep a copy of your income tax returns," Mr. J. G. Martin, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue Service, advises taxpayers.

A readily available copy of your income tax return will serve to assist you in preparing tax returns for subsequent years, provide the administrator of your estate with information needed for tax matters should you die, and will serve as a reference document in any discussions concerning tax matters with Revenue Service auditors.

Extra returns for this purpose are provided in both the 1040 and 1040A packages which were mailed recently to taxpayers.

Mr. Martin also reminded taxpayers who file on Forms 1040 to use the preaddressed return which is the first return in the package. The return marked "COPY" should always be used for the taxpayer's records.

The good thing about the seasons is that all we have to do is wait. We may not like the weather we have now, but something different will come soon. We experience a great variety of weather in a dozen months.

It's a great consolation to have this mighty spectacle of spring and autumn, sun and rain, day and night continually unfold around us.

It's the dependable rhythm of nature, the ebb and flow of seasons, the beauty of earth and sky, which give our lives a firm ground tone.

But Christianity is not a nature religion. It finds the revelation of God in nature alone but even more in human personality — our own, as the children of God, and supremely in Jesus as the Son of God.

That is why it is necessary for us to become an important part of His Church.

We can get in the mood to understand the presence of God when we experience the quietness of the woodlands or hear waves breaking against the cliffs, or look heavenward at the billowing clouds. But, it is not enough to get in a mood. We must join in the communion and fellowship of other believers in order to obtain our purpose and faith. Come, let us go into the House of the Lord. . . .

state's crippled
adults

The dates of the campaign will be from March 1 to March 15, ending on Easter Sunday.

A state-wide campaign will be conducted to aid children and adults who have crippling conditions such as arthritis, cerebral palsy, polio, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis, strokes, speech disorders and other orthopedic and neuromuscular disorders.

Last year the Mississippi Easter Seal Society served 414 children and 390 adults for a total of 804. Also, 2,158 types of services including equipment loans, transportation, employment, medication, hospitalization, speech therapy, medical care, physical therapy, camping, birth defects, accidents, epilepsy, diabetes, financial aid, and speech therapy were given by the Mississippi Chapter.

Posey said that in 1963, over $102,000 was spent in the care and treatment of the crippled in Mississippi.

The services are financed largely by the voluntary contributions of Mississippians, given during the annual Easter Seal campaign. "We urge the people of Mississippi to contribute and use the Easter Seals during March," Posey challenged.

The Mississippi Easter Seal Society is one of the 1,426 affiliates of the National Society for Crippled Children who fight crippling on national, state and community levels through a coordinated program of direct treatment, research and education.

Hancock Economy Suffered Loss Due Traffic Accidents, 1963

The 1963 annual summary of traffic accident statistics prepared by the Accident Records Division of the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol under the direction of Commissioner of Public Safety T. B. Birdsong was recently published. On the basis of those figures the following information is presented:

During 1963 the economy of Hancock County suffered a loss of $108,100 in property damage. There were 191 accidents, 122 injuries and 9 fatalities. To bring the above figures into closer focus this represents 22 accidents every day, and 33 injuries per day.

Economically, the county lost an average of $487 per day, or $202.37 per hour, or .06 per second. Every second that ticked on your watch last year resulted in the loss to Hancock County's economy of $.06.

These figures put into terms everyone can understand the high cost of poor driving. At the present time we are below the traffic death toll for the same period in 1963 but only concerted effort on the part of every driver every time he gets behind the wheel can reduce the above figures. We can't afford a loss of this size. Drive safely - it pays!

BAY JAYCEES REPRESENTED AT LAUREL MEETING

Lee Choppin, Andre Arceneaux, Charles Carter, Louis Prendergast and Al Bonnevall represented Bay St. Louis Jaycees at the Jaycee Winter Board meeting and Distinguished Service award banquet in Laurel over the weekend.

Approximately 700 persons registered, including Jaycee state presidents of Louisiana and Illinois and other state officers.

Attending were D. S. A. nominees from 44 Jaycee chapters over the state including Rev. Emory Green of this city.

Three equal awards are presented to state winners. This year's winners were Lewis L. McAllister Jr. of Meridian; Marion B. Cagle, Tupelo; and Charles W. Pickering, Laurel. Dean Gordon, National Vice President U. S. J. C. C., stressed that all D. S. A. local winners are truly the outstanding young men of Mississippi.

The session started with a get acquainted party Friday night. An executive committee meeting and films of projects were on the morning program with seminars in the afternoon. The banquet and presentation of awards was preceded by a cocktail party in the evening which ended with a dance.

At the business session Sunday morning, the board of directors voted to hold the State Outstanding Young Farmers Event in Grenada.

While the local delegation worked to get the event here in 1964 the fact that it was held here last year and the distance farmers have to travel to get to the coast was too much to overcome, the local group said.

REAL ESTATE BROKERS MUST FILE WITH COMMISSION

The Mississippi Real Estate Commission has ruled that a copy of each cooperating agreement between a Mississippi real estate broker and a non-resident broker must be filed in the office of the Commission in Jackson.

Commissioner B. J. Beard, Hattiesburg, of the Real Estate Commission said, "The Mississippi Real Estate Brokers License Act of 1954 provides that anyone listing, showing, leasing, renting, selling, appraising or auctioning real estate in Mississippi must be licensed by the Commission." Mr. Beard added, "Only non-resident residents of this state of at least one year are eligible for licenses in Mississippi."

The Mississippi Real Estate Commission's ruling provides that in order for an out of state licensed real estate broker to operate in Mississippi, he must have a written cooperating agreement with a Mississippi broker for each parcel involved. Even after an agreement is executed, the nonresident broker must be accompanied by the Mississippi cooperating broker at all times when he is in Mississippi conducting any phase of the real estate transaction, including listing and showing property.

The state wide immunization survey which was being conducted by the Mississippi State Board of Health has been completed, according to Dr. A. L. Gray, State Health Officer.

The survey was conducted to establish the immunization level of Mississippi's population. During the course of the survey a total of 6034 household units were contacted in all 82 counties of the state.

Trained interviewers obtained such information as the names and ages of everyone living in the household, each person's current immunization record, and whether they received their immunization from a private physician or the local county health department.

The survey personnel was assisted by the county health officers and the staffs of the local health departments in locating and contacting residents throughout the state.

"It is only through the cooperation of the public that this information was obtained," stated Dr. Gray. "A sincere thank you is due to each person that gave of his or her time and cooperation to aid us on this survey."

The information that was collected on the survey is now being tabulated and prepared for analysis by electronic equipment. It will be several weeks before figures will be available as to the immunization level of our population.

The immunization survey was one phase of an intensive immunization project being carried on by the Mississippi State Board of Health. The project is designed to achieve as quickly as possible the protection of the population, especially of all pre-school children, against polio, diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, and smallpox.

"The data obtained on the survey will be used as a basis to direct future immunization policies and programs throughout the state," added Dr. Gray.

"An all-out immunization program will be conducted to bring about the annihilation of these preventable diseases that we have allowed to continue to victimize us."

NEW TAX PAYMENTS IN EFFECT WAGES AFTER MARCH 5

Mr. J. G. Martin, District Director, announced today that all wage and salary payments made on or after March 5 should reflect the new lower withholding rates established by the Revenue Act of 1964 signed by President Johnson Wednesday evening.

He said that the Internal Revenue Service will follow a rule of reason in enforcing the March 5 effective date. It will not find fault with employers who are delayed a day or two in putting the lower rate into effect by problems encountered in converting their payroll systems.

The withholding tables employers should use in applying the 14 percent withholding rate were mailed to some 4 and one-half million employers February 10. This advance mailing was designed to give employers lead-time in making the payroll changes required. Employers who have not received the Employer's Tax Guide, Circular E, which shows the new rates may obtain a copy at Internal Revenue District Offices.

Mr. Martin also stated that the new law would have an effect on 1964 estimated tax returns and withholding on certain payments made by employers for sick pay, moving expenses, and other items.

A supplementary instruction sheet for estimated tax returns, Form 1040ES, explaining changes under the 1964 Revenue Act is being readied for release and quantities of this form will be made available through banks, Post Offices, and outlying offices of Internal Revenue Service.

A supplementary instruction sheet is also being prepared for mailing to employers with the first quarter's Form 941. This supplement to the instructions explains how withholding is to be handled on sick pay and moving expenses. The Internal Revenue Service advises taxpayers with interest income to show the payer on Schedule B in order to facilitate processing of their returns. Schedule B is filed with the 1964 tax return and may not have been received in the mail as part of the forms package. Mr. Martin emphasized that where taxpayers make the added effort to secure a Schedule B and show their interest income on this additional form, it will expedite any refund that they are entitled to.

Bell-Allen Wedding

Trinity Episcopal Church of Pass Christian, Miss., was the setting for the wedding at 4:30 Sunday afternoon of Miss Barbara Ayres Allen, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Nunez C. Pilet of Bay St. Louis, and Barry Lee Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Foulkrod of Philadelphia, Pa.

The Rev. Mr. Durrie B. Hardin, officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with arrangements of white stock, Easter lilies and small white mums in gold vases.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an imported French gown of delicate crystal white Versailles lace on accented pleated tulle over bridal taffeta. The sculptured bodice featured a narrow rolled collar opening to a ending in collar and fitted sleeves. The floor length bouffant skirt, featured a front panel of lace to balance the modified train. The side paniers of lace were alternated with accented pleated tulle. Her elbow length veil of illusion fell from a French tiara, and she carried a cascade bouquet of lily of the valley, yellow sweetheart roses and white camellias. She wore a gold wedding bracelet over a century old and was the fourth bride in line to wear it, since the original owner, her great-grandmother, Mary Alice Ball Hart. She also wore a single strand of tiny pearls.

Miss Nancy Fife of Gulfport, maid of honor, wore a street length pale lemon-yellow gown. She wore a white mantilla and carried a cascade of pale yellow roses, white camellias and lily of the valley.

Miss Jenny Bates of Handsboro, Miss., served as flower girl. She wore a yellow full skirted dress fashioned with rounded neckline and an overskirt of white organza. From a white basket she scattered yellow rose petals.

Joe E. Allen, brother of the bride of New Orleans and Bay St. Louis, was best man and Steve Hicks of Gulfport was trainbearer. Ushers were Charles Breath, Bay St. Louis; William Howard, San Pedro, Calif.; Mark Nelson, Woodbine, Maryland; and William Powell Jr., Gulfport.

A reception was held at the Trinity Parish House immediately following the service.

Southern Smiles and glossy magnolia leaves formed the background for the receiving line. Yellow tea roses, white camellias, yellow cushion mums and spring jonquils decorated the reception room.

Mrs. Pilet chose for the occasion a delft blue dress fashioned with a deep narrow V neckline and draped bodice with tailored bow-belt at the waistline. The skirt, made on slender-straight lines, featured Grecian folds in the front balanced by a wide deep pleat in the back at the hemline. She wore a white French lace mantilla.

The bride's table, covered with a hand-made lace cloth and edged with a pale yellow taffeta skirt, held a double wedding cake trimmed with an arrangement of yellow sweetheart roses, flanked by silver candelabra holding white tapers.

Mrs. Edward Bommer kept the guest register; Mrs. C. C. McDonald Sr., Bay St. Louis, presided at the silver coffee service and Mrs. Sam Kelly Williams, Gulfport, presided at the cake table, and Mesdames Frank Butler Johnson of Baton Rouge and Robert Langlois of Gulfport, at the punch table. Tea girls were Misses Martha Cranford, Anita Adcock and Nancy Kirby.

For her wedding trip to Philadelphia, the bride wore a pale lemon yellow three piece double suit with neutral tone trim and bone-colored accessories. Her single ornament was an heirloom Cameo medallion which was first worn by her great-grandmother on her wedding trip costume.

After mid-April Mr. and Mrs. Bell will be at home in Tokyo, Japan.

A native of New Orleans, the bride is the only daughter of the late Ebert Ayres Allen and Mrs. Pilet. She attended St. Joseph Academy, Bay St. Louis, graduated from Gulfport High School and received her bachelor of music Education Degree at the University of Southern Mississippi where she

A. Bring your social security card, a record that proves your age, and a copy of your withholding tax form for 1963. If your wife is 62, she should come with you. If you have children under 18, bring their birth certificate.

Q. What type record do I need to prove my age?

A. Usually any public record made a number of years ago, which shows your age. It need not be a birth certificate. Other records may be used: baptismal record, a census record, voter's registration record, marriage record, a child's birth certificate which shows your age, or family 'ible record.

Q. Recently I got a statement of my social security record. Some of my wages for the past two years were not credited to my account. How can I straighten this out?

A. Visit the social security office as soon as possible. Bring your withholding statements (Form W-2) for the wages not credited. If you do not have a form W-2, bring any receipts or other evidence of wages. We'll be glad to help you get all your earnings on the record.
